

HI	Permit state – prohibited without permit
ID	Permit state – prohibited without permit
IL	Reciprocal; Not permitted for non-reciprocal states
IN	Up to 18 liters
IA	Reciprocal; Up to 1 liter for non-reciprocal states
KS	Unlimited; Consumer must pay applicable taxes
KY	2 cases per customer per visit
LA	Only with permit
ME	Up to 1 gallon
MD	In personal baggage provision is allowed, but delivery to individuals by common carrier is prohibited
MA	Up to 3 gallons; Carriers do not want to deliver at this time
MI	Up to 312 oz. Slightly > 9 liters
MN	Open; Reasonable quantity (2 cases are allowed by the shipping laws)
MS	Prohibited
MO	Reciprocal; Up to 5 gallons for non-reciprocal states
MT	Up to 3 gallons
NE	Permit state; Up to 9 liters without permit
NV	Permit state; Up to 1 gallon without permit
NH	Permit State; Up to 3 quarts without permit
NJ	Up to 1 gallon
NM	Reciprocal; Any reasonable quantity for non-reciprocal states
NY	Permit state – prohibited without permit
NC	Up to 50 liters
ND	Permit state – prohibited without permit
OH	Unlimited; Consumer must pay applicable taxes
OK	Up to 1 liter
OR	Reciprocal; Up to 2 cases for non-reciprocal states
PA	Unlimited; Check with carrier to see if serving state
RI	Up to 3 gallons
SC	Up to 1 gallon
SD	Up to 1 gallon
TN	Up to 1 gallon
TX	Permit state – prohibited without permit
UT	Prohibited
VT	Up to 6 gallons
VA	Up to 1 gallon
WA	Permit state – prohibited without permit
WV	Reciprocal; Up to 10 gallons for non-reciprocal states
WI	Reciprocal; Prohibited for non-reciprocal states
WY	Permit state; Up to 3 liters without permit

* For those states requiring permits, wineries may choose to ship under the permit laws (which have different limits, requires payment of taxes and obtaining a permit) or using the federal on-site provisions.